"Bailey" Enters Agility Dog Hall of Fame

Club Member and Newly elected Board Member, Mark Slevin's dog "Bailey", Mystic Corvette Post My Bail, recently earned her place in the Agility Dog Hall of Fame. Congrats to this fantastic team...we're so lucky to have BOTH of them as members of our club!

GRN Excerpt (Slevin):

Bailey has only been competing at the Excellent B level since late September 2007, so completing the ADHF requirements in only 5 months is pretty amazing. She has been a very consistent performer and loves competing in the ring – you can see this as she runs every course with an ear-to-ear grin. Bailey will cover Mark's handling errors most of the time, but every now and then she will take a wrong course, as directed, and will then bark at Mark telling him that she knew he was sending her over the wrong obstacle.

Bailey is a very sweet girl and a great companion. She continues to have lots of fun with agility and is always entertaining. Nothing beats playing agility games in the dirt with Bailey.

Goals for 2008 are to qualify for 2009 AKC Nationals and chase down the remaining Double Q's and speed points for her MACH.
